

BARRA

of M E N D O C I N O

RANDY MEYER

Director of Winemaking & Operations
BARRA of Mendocino/Girasole Vineyards and Redwood Valley Cellars

A graduate from UC Davis, Randy Meyer launched his winemaking and brewing career with the renowned F. Korbel & Brothers where he spent more than 20 years honing his still wine, champagne, and brew master skills on brands such as Korbel Champagne, Valley of The Moon, and Russian River Brewing. Following his time at Korbel, Randy served as Senior Winemaker for M. Draxton, Inc. as well as Geysler Peak Winery in Sonoma County.

Randy joined the Barra family as Director of Winemaking and Operations in June 2019 and is responsible for overseeing all winemaking activities for both the CCOF-certified custom crush facility, Redwood Valley Cellars, as well as the organically farmed BARRA of Mendocino and Girasole Vineyards wines.

When he's not making wine, Randy likes to spend time with his wife Marina and daughters Sara and Kristin. Randy also enjoys gardening, home improvement, golf, skiing and music.

Current favorite bottles of wine: 2017 BARRA of Mendocino Zinfandel and 2019 Girasole Vineyards Pinot Blanc

Favorite food: Anything Asian

Favorite band: Rush

Favorite saying/words of wisdom: "Luck is when preparation meets opportunity"